

Home at last

By: fred mac donald Wednesday, 18th January 2012 Yesterday was the 1st March 2012... eventually. That means the new kitten came home.

I left home at around 18h45 to go and fetch him. Got back home at around 20h30  $\,$

It seems like "Fancy Cat" will be his name. This came about after I tried to explain to someone that a Siamese is no ordinary cat. They are something special, unique, "fancy"

The scene from "The Lady and a tramp" where the two Siamese came to visit and sang their Siamese song is so typical. They are proud, always get what they want, get into trouble then plead "cute".

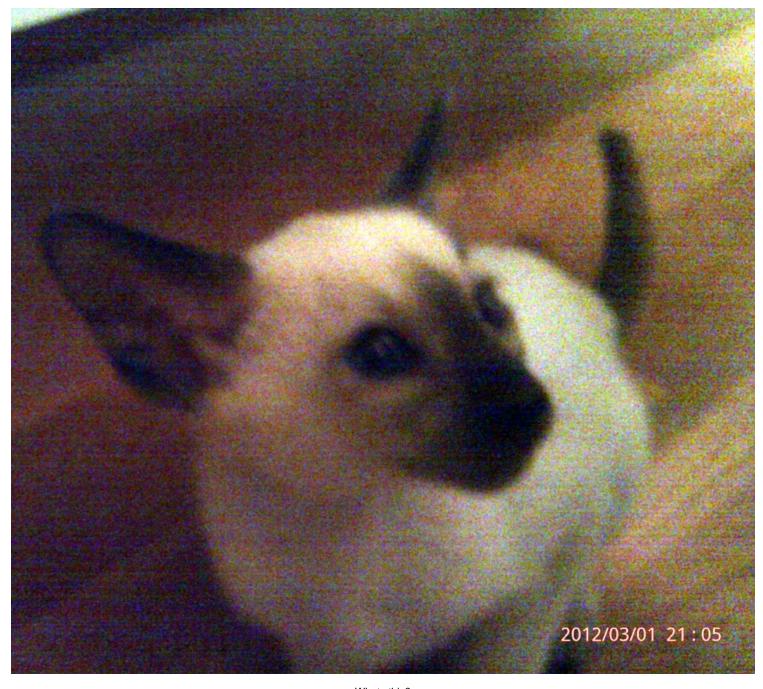

I will let the photos tell the rest of the story...

Diesel engine is going!!

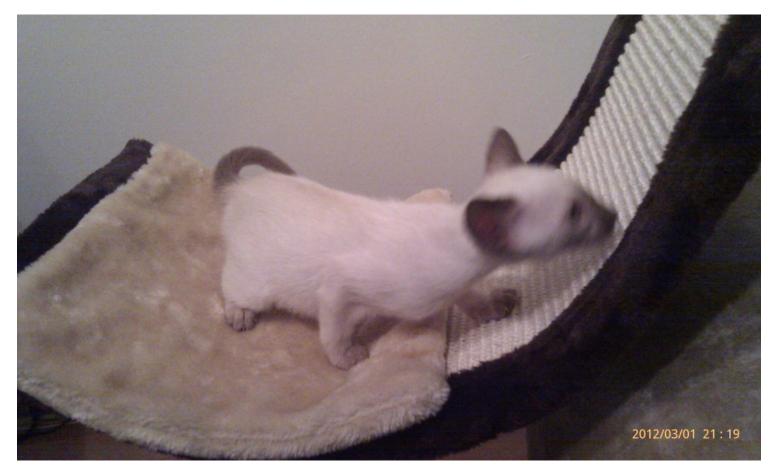

Quick Snack

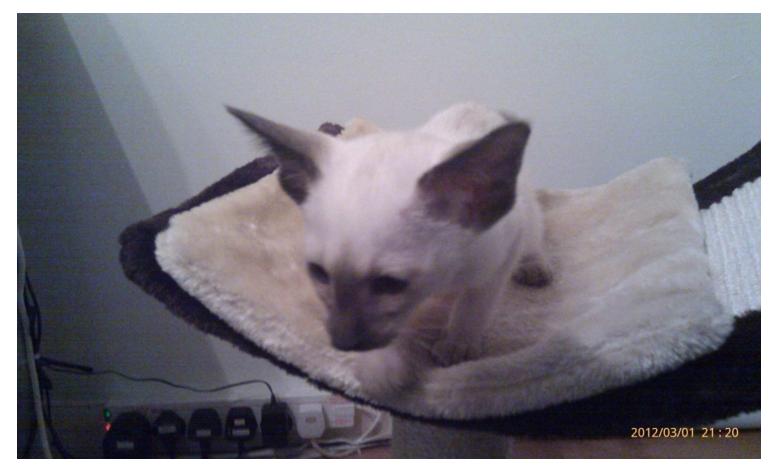

Whats this?

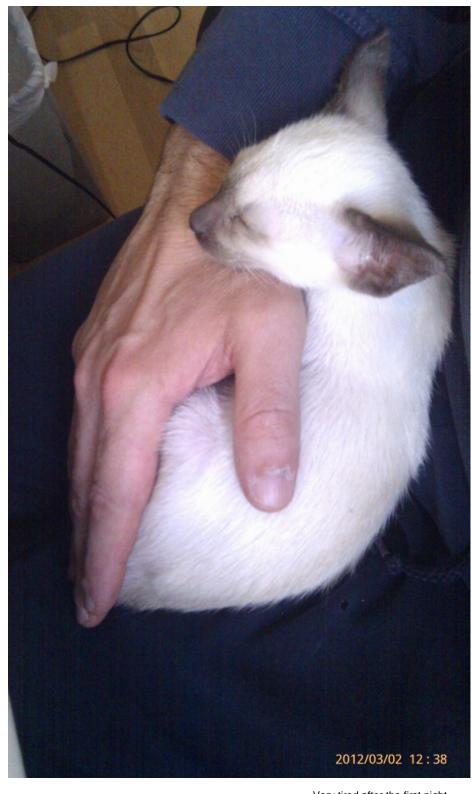

Let me see

A cat tree? Whats that?

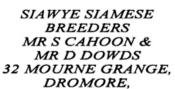

It's to high

Very tired after the first night

Cant keep his eyes open

We brought her over from Cornwall in 2008. She is a Seal Tortie Point Siamese who loves to chat and play.

Our young Chocolate Point Siamese was brought over from Cornwall in 2008. He has won 2 CCs and needs 1 more to become Champion. He is a real sticking plaster.
